I am the vine you are the branches
John 15:1-8

Few cultivated crops are richer in symbolism in the bible as the vine. The prophet Isaiah used this metaphor when he spoke of Israel as a vineyard that had been nurtured and cared for by God, the vinedresser, yet failed to bear fruit. Jesus used the image of the vine and the branches to talk about the community he had founded. The vine and the branches need one another. Just as a branch gets its sap from the tree, so we derive our life from God. Jesus declared himself to be the true vine whose Father was the vine-grower. Jesus' Church would be the new Israel who would bear good fruit only when united to him. Withered branches, which separated themselves from the vine, would be cut off; they were only good for fuel for the fire. Good branches would be pruned in order to increase their yield. Jesus spoke this discourse at the Last Supper. The "fruit of the vine" that Jesus gave us is his life-giving presence in the saving cup that nourishes the faithful.

TO LOVE: Is my ministry in the Church fruitful or unproductive?

TO SERVE: Risen Lord, prune any dead wood in my life so I may eternally abide in you.

Pentecost Vigil for young people

8 The Pentecost Vigil will be held on Saturday May 19 at Our Lady Queen of Angels in Thebarton.
 Y The Catholic Office for Youth and Young Adults and the Cathedral Parish invite young people aged 16 to 30 to the Pentecost Vigil. This is an opportunity for young people across the Archdiocese to come together and celebrate the birthday of the Church as one big community. The event will feature a concert from Steve Angrisano, a fan favourite from multiple World Youth Days and Australian Catholic Youth Festivals. Come along and enjoy an evening of live music, inspiring testimonies, delicious food and the Pentecost Vigil Mass. More info can be found at www.cathoyouthadelaide.org.au.

Diocesan Youth Cross design contest

OF During the Year of Youth, the Catholic Office for Youth and Young Adults is inviting young people to submit designs for a Diocesan Youth Cross. Submissions are to be emailed to peter.bierer@cesa.catholic.edu.au (Peter Bierer) by June 1. A panel will choose the winning designs and the winners will then work with a professional artist who will create the Youth Cross in time for World Youth Day 2019. More information on the Diocesan Youth Cross can be found at <http://www.cathoyouthadelaide.org.au/year-of-youth/>.
