ST FRANCIS OF ASSISI CATHOLIC PARISH

Contemplation | Fraternity | Mission

10th SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME
10th June, 2018/Year B

"Anyone who does God's will is my brother and sister and mother." -- Jesus
Mark 3:35

News of Jesus' ministry reaches members of his family who have difficulty understanding his life-style as an itinerant preacher. They fear that he has lost his mind and could not handle his own affairs. Some scribes attributed Jesus' power over disease as coming from Beelzebul ('lord of the lofty dwelling,' the pagan god Baal of Syria). Jesus shows the foolishness of a divided kingdom. His every word and deed was an attack on Satan's domain. When Jesus was informed that his mother and relatives were looking for him, he said that more than blood relationship, it is in doing God's will that makes one his "brother and sister."

TO LOVE: Do my actions reflect my bond with other believers?
TO SERVE: Lord Jesus, thank you for making me a member of your family.

NOTE: In Semitic language, "brothers" or "sisters" can mean children of the same parent, but can also imply extended members of a family such as cousins, etc. If Mark intended to say that Mary had other children, he would have said, "the sons and daughters of your mother are here," which would explain that they were Jesus' natural brothers and sisters. The doctrine of Mary's perpetual virginity was defined by the Lateran Council in 649 CE.

St. Anthony of Padua, Wed. 13th June

Born in Lisbon, Portugal, in 1195 and baptised Fernando, today's saint became an Augustinian priest. Inspired by a group of Franciscans recently martyred in Morocco, he became a Franciscan himself and took the name Anthony. He preached throughout France & Northern Italy, especially against the Cathari heresy (a form of dualism which believed in a God and an evil one, and rejected marriage). He died at Padua in Italy at age 36.

Mass at 8.00am in English & 7.00pm in Italian.
