NEWTON MASS TIMES

Saturday: 6:00pm (Vigil)
Sunday: 9am, 5pm, 10:30am Italian
Monday-Saturday: 8am
Friday: 7:00pm (in Italian)
LAST Friday: 7:00pm (in English)

"This is truly the Prophet, the one who is to come into the world" (v.14).

The miracle of the multiplication of bread is narrated by all four evangelists (Matthew 14:13-21 and 15:32-38; Mark 6:31-44 and 8:1-10; Luke 9:10-17), which indicates its Eucharistic importance for the early Church. In John's gospel, the miracle took place near Passover, the Jewish unleavened bread feast (Ex 12:8). When the Israelites were wandering in the wilderness and dying of hunger, God fed them with manna (Ex 16:4). Jesus declared that he himself was the bread that came "down from heaven" to give "life to the world" (Jn 6:33). Like the prophet Elisha (2 Kgs 4:42-44), Jesus took the loaves of barley bread, the humble food of the poor, gave thanks (Greek, eucharisteō), broke and distributed it to the hungry people.

The people's reaction: "This is truly the Prophet, the one who is to come into the world," refers to the "prophet like Moses" (Deut 18:15, 18) who was anticipated in the final days. However, the people looked for a Messiah who would be king and a conqueror who would drive the Romans from the land. When Jesus realized this, he withdrew to the mountain alone.

TO LOVE:
In what ways do I help provide "bread" for the poor?

TO SERVE:
Lord Jesus, strengthen me with your body and blood in the Eucharist.
