Reception to Year 7

"A prophet is not without honour except in his native place and among his own kin and in his own house" (v 4).

When Jesus returned to his hometown of Nazareth, his neighbours were astonished by his teachings. They wondered where he acquired his wisdom and amazing power. They asked many questions: Who did Jesus think he was? Wasn't he a mere carpenter? (Greek, tekton, a "craftsman") Didn't his mother and family live in their community? Jesus was distressed that his neighbours were offended by him. Moses had promised the people that there would be a great prophet who would arise among their own kinsmen, and that they would listen to him (Dt 18:15). But Jesus declared, "Prophets are not without honour, except in their hometown, and among their own kin, and in their own house" (v 4). Like the prophets of old, Jesus was not accepted by those to whom he was sent.

Because they lacked faith, Jesus was able to perform only a few miracles among his own kin. Jesus went on to teach in other villages, but there were few "mighty deeds" done in his hometown.

TO LOVE:

Lord Jesus, help me to be open to your voice in my neighbours and family.

TO SERVE:

Do I recognize the gifts of the people in my community?
